Rules of the Neurological Foundation of New Zealand

Introduction

- A. The Neurological Foundation of New Zealand (“Foundation”), under its former name “The New Zealand Neurological Foundation” was established by a declaration of trust dated 25 August 1971 (“Declaration”). The Declaration recorded that the then trustees held certain moneys donated for the objects and purposes recorded in the appendices to the Declaration, and provided that the Foundation should be incorporated under the Charitable Trusts Act 1957 (“CTA”). The Declaration also provided that upon incorporation the trustees named in that document would:
- (a) adopt the objects, powers and rules attached as appendices to the Declaration (“Original Rules”); and
 - (b) thereafter transfer the property held by them to the Council (as it was then constituted) for the purposes of carrying out the objects of the Foundation.
- B. The Council of the Foundation was subsequently incorporated as a trust board on 29 October 1971 (under the name New Zealand Neurological Foundation). Since that date, the Original Rules have been varied at meetings of the Foundation’s Members held on 19 June 1986, 20 July 1990 and 7 December 1997, 3 December 2009, 29 November 2012, 5 December 2013, and 3 December 2015.
- C. On 5 February 1998, the Foundation changed its name to the current name, and on 25 May 2007, the Foundation was registered with Charities Services as a charity under the Charities Act 2005.
- D. Clause 14 of the Original Rules (as varied under paragraph B) permits those rules to be altered by majority of at least two-thirds of the Members of the Foundation.
- E. Pursuant to clause 14 of the Original Rules (as varied under paragraph B), the Members have agreed to alter the Original Rules. These rules (and the terms and conditions contained herein) comprise a restatement of the Original Rules as altered.

(Clause 8.12)

1.1 Transitional provisions: The following provisions shall apply to the Original Council Members:

- (a) At the Annual General Meetings held in each of 2020, 2021 and 2022 three of the Council Members shall retire as Council Members. The Original Council Members to resign each year shall be the members who have served longest (in terms of total number of years served) as Council Members (including their tenure as Council Members prior to the date of these rules) unless another Original Council Member chooses to retire at the relevant Annual General Meeting.
- (b) If there are more than three Original Council Members who have each served longest terms, a ballot (in the absence of agreement between them) shall be held to determine those of the Original Council Members who ought to retire. A declaration by the Chairperson (or, where the Chairperson is an Original Council Member who may be required to retire, the Deputy Chairperson if he or she is not subject to retirement) as to who has been selected to retire shall be conclusive.
- (c) Any Original Council Member retiring in accordance with these provisions in each of 2020, 2021 and 2022 shall be eligible for re-election, and if re-elected shall hold office as a Council Member for a term to be determined in the following manner:
 - (i) Original Members who have, by the date of adoption of these rules, served a total term of ten years or more, shall be entitled to re-appointment for one further term of office of four years. An Original Council Member, to whom this sub-paragraph (i) applies, who retires under this schedule (whether or not such retirement occurs at the Annual General Meeting in 2020, 2021 or 2022 or after he or she serves the one further term of office referred to in the preceding sentence), shall be eligible for re-election provided they have vacated the position of Council Member for a period of four years or more from their retirement. If re-elected, the Original Council Member shall, thereafter, hold office as a Council Member for the term determined by and subject to clause 8.6 of these rules.
 - (ii) Original Members who have, by the date of adoption of these rules, served a total term of less than ten years, may if re-elected hold office for a term determined by and subject to clause 8.6
- (d) Notwithstanding sub-clauses (c)(i) and (ii) above, if a retiring Original Council Member is re-elected as a Council Member (as contemplated in sub-clause (c) above) and, during the re-elected term, he or she is elected as Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson, that Original Council Member shall, subject to clause 8.5, hold office as a Council Member until the later of the following dates:
 - (i) The date on which his or her term as a Council Member ends (as determined under sub-clauses (c)(i) and (ii) above).
 - (ii) The date on which he or she ceases to hold office as Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson. For the purposes of this sub-clause, the date on which a Council Member ceases to hold office as Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson shall include the date on which the term of his or her appointment as such ends in circumstances where he or she is not re-elected to hold such office for a further term. A Council Member shall not be regarded as ceasing to hold office as Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson if, at the end of the term of his or her appointment as such, he or she is re-elected to hold office as Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson, as applicable, for a further term.

- (e) For the avoidance of doubt, the transitional provisions in this clause shall only apply to the Original Council Members, and shall be of no further force or effect once all of the Original Council Members have retired in accordance with this clause (irrespective of whether or not any of such Council Members have been re- elected).
